Aji Saka

The journey to Medang Kamulan was not smooth, Aji Saka had fought for seven days and seven nights with the forest-dwelling demon because Aji Saka refused to be made a slave by the forest-dwelling demon for ten years before being allowed to pass through the forest. But thanks to his supernatural powers, Aji Saka managed to dodge the demon's flames. Shortly after Aji Saka prayed, a yellow light shone from the sky, hitting the forest-dwelling demon and eliminating him.

Aji Saka

When they were measuring the land according to Aji Saka's request the turban continued to lengthen so that its area exceeded the area of Prabu Dewata Cengkar's kingdom. Prabu was angry after knowing Aji Saka's real intention was to end his tyranny. When Prabu Dewata Cengkar was angry, Aji Saka's turban wrapped tightly around the Prabu's body. The body of Prabu Dewata Cengkar was thrown by Aji Saka and fell into the southern sea and was swallowed by the waves.
